

I strongly object to cable channel bundling. I want only the MOSDT basic cable stations plus HBO. Before applicable local law forced Comcast to offer premium stations without "expanded" basic, I couldn't afford to have HBO. Moreover, I didn't want all the expanded "basic" channels. Please require cable companies to offer non-bundled options, and not to charge more per option when the consumer buys non-bundled. Thank you.